With 60 cabin and a score of steerage passengers, the departure of the Sierra proved interesting and picturesque. The vessel was supplied with 14,000 sacks of sugar, 2000 bunches of bananas, 3900 cases of preserved pineapples, 600 bags of coffee, also shipments of hides, empty drums and containers, honey and sundries. CASTLE LINE WILL MAKE HONOLULU PORT OF CALL

A new line of steamers will make its initial bow to Honolulu beginning with the first of the year when the big British freighter Lowther Castle, one of a score of ocean going cargo carriers, arrives about January 3.

For the past 10 years the Lowther Castle has been operated over a route between the Atlantic seaboard and the Far East by way of Suez canal. Taking heavy shipments of freight from New York for Japan, China and the Philippines the vessel has returned to the east coast of the United States with varied products from the Orient.

The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, who will represent the Castle line of steamers, has been advised that the vessel has left Panama canal and will call at Honolulu for additional bunker coal.

The British steamer Royal Prince, with a large shipment of cotton from Galveston and other southern ports destined for Japan, is expected to call here the later part of December. This vessel will also receive coal to the amount of about 500 tons.

Leaving New York on November 6, and Galveston on November 22, the British steamship Swazi was coaled at Honolulu on Sunday, the vessel proceeding to Japan at a late hour in the evening. Capt. G. Hardy reported a delay of several days at Panama canal because of slides at Culebra cut.

Prompt action by the United States engineering corps soon had the mass of earth removed from the waterway. The voyage from Panama to Honolulu is stated to have been a pleasant one with fine weather throughout the trip.

The Swazi while equipped with wireless telegraph was not reported until within one day of the port. In addition to cotton the vessel carried a large quantity of structural steel.

To take an extra shipment of supplies for ports along the coast of the island of Kauai, the steamer Likeliha has been placed on the berth to steam at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Several hundred sacks of Christmas mail from the mainland are due to arrive at the port in the Matson steamer Wilhelmina tomorrow morning.

POLICE READY TO CARE FOR XMAS CROWDS

The police department has decided upon early action in the disposition of traffic and the handling of a vast throng, which is believed will be attracted to the business district on Christmas eve.

To those who persist in throwing sneezing, talcum and other noxious or annoying powders, little consideration will be shown by the police, so decided Sheriff Charles Rose and Deputy Sheriff Julius Asch after a conference with members of the force this morning.

Automobiles and other vehicles will not be allowed to stand on King or Hotel street between Nuuanu and Bishop streets after 6:30 o'clock this evening. The same regulation will apply to Fort and Bishop streets between King and Hotel streets.

"I shall take a decided stand in preventing the firing of bombs, crackers or other explosives on city streets Christmas eve," stated Sheriff Rose today.

"The department has received much complaint in former years because of the depredations from a number of 'fresh' youths who, passing in the throng, used quantities of pungent powder which they distributed by means of feather dusters and blow guns," said Sheriff Rose.

"I have instructed every uniformed and plain clothes officer on the force who will be on duty on that evening to place under arrest each and all offenders."

"Pedestrians will be warned to keep to the right of the thoroughfares. Three watches of police will be on duty from early evening until some time after midnight. The mounted squad will be employed in patrolling the residence sections of the city."

The prediction was made today that the hoodlum element, who are ever present upon such cases, would be given short shrift by the officers.

A meeting of the members of Lehigh Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, has been called for 7:30 o'clock this evening in the Masonic Temple, Alakea and Hotel streets.
